I swear or affirm that the statement I am giving (hereunder) is truthful and accurate:

On July 5, 2017, I was at home with my boyfriend. He was sleeping in the other room. I started hearing loud noises coming from the Campbell house next door. I stepped outside and saw Bill Campbell and Sara Campbell screaming at each other. Bill Campbell cursed at her and called her very bad names. He then grabbed her by the throat and punched her in the head several times. He told her that if she reported him, then he would kill her. Then they went back inside the house.
